

FIFA World Cup Schedule in Pacific Standard Time (PST) PDF Download

Fans on the West Coast can plan their viewing more easily with a FIFA World Cup schedule converted into Pacific Time. Instead of checking Eastern Time for every kickoff, this PST version gives a straightforward list that is easier to follow for readers in California, Washington, Oregon, Nevada, and other Pacific Time regions.

This schedule is useful for sports blogs, printable guides, match-day planning, and quick daily reference. It also works well for readers searching for terms such as FIFA World Cup 2026 PST schedule, World Cup fixtures in Pacific Time, and FIFA World Cup PDF download in PST.

The times below are converted from the provided Eastern Time list. Pacific Time is three hours behind ET, so some late-night Eastern kickoffs shift to earlier evening slots in Pacific Time. A few midnight ET matches also move to the previous calendar day in Pacific Time, which is why the adjusted date matters as much as the kickoff hour.

The group-stage lineup includes major fixtures such as Mexico vs. South Africa, USA vs. Paraguay, Brazil vs. Morocco, France vs. Senegal, England vs. Croatia, and Argentina vs. Algeria. With matches hosted across the United States, Canada, and Mexico, a Pacific Time chart makes the opening stage much easier to track.

Below is the converted schedule from June 11 to June 27 in a clean PDF-friendly format. Note that although June uses daylight time in practice, this file keeps the PST label to match your requested title and keyword format.
